Moon Craving—Children of the Moon Book 2

Bestselling author Lucy Monroe pens a scorching tale of passion, deception, and a wild love that can't be tamed...

If it were up to him, Talorc—laird of the Sinclair clan and leader of his werewolf pack—would never marry. But when the king orders that Talorc wed an Englishwoman, the lone wolf is shocked to find his mate in the strong-willed Abigail. And after an intensely climactic wedding night, the two fiercely independent souls sense an unbreakable bond...

Deaf since childhood, Abigail hopes to keep her affliction from Talorc as long as possible. And for his part, he has no intention of telling her about being a werewolf. But when Abigail learns that the husband she's begun to love has deceived her, it will take all of his warrior's strength—and his wolf's cunning—to win his wife back. And Talorc will have to face his biggest challenge yet: the vulnerability of a man in love...

Silver & Gold—Lucy's big 25 & 50!

2010 is a banner year for Lucy. In August, she'll see the release of her 25th Harlequin. Then, in September, she'll have her 50th book published! She's jazzed and wanting to celebrate, so look for online parties, special prizes in her monthly contest and on her blog, extra chats with readers and maybe even another blog tour with a special contest! It's a silver and gold rush for sure; don't miss your chance to hit a strike!

Opposites attract...if they don't combust first!

Harlequin Tries Something New

In an effort to get more exposure for their series books in the single title market, Harlequin is launching a new imprint. Showcase will pair two short contemporary novels in a single book that will be sold on the general romance shelves, rather than in the Harlequin racks. The debut Showcase in May will have a re-issue of The Sicilian's Marriage Arrangement, one of Lucy's earliest Presents.
